19 of 19 review helpful Believe the good reviews By Afi Scruggs I m a print reporter who creates weekly slide shows for two hyperlocal sites That s a fancy term for online only community news I can take a halfway decent photo but I wanted to learn to think like a photojournalist I bought this book after having a photograph turned down by another company The editor said the photograph didn't tell the story Time Photojournalism A Professionals Approach 6th edition blends insightful interviews with professionals practical experience current equipment and camera technology and high impact photographs to create the definitive book on photojournalism The DVD features footage of working professionals handling on the job challenges This revised edition features information on new laws affecting photojournalists new trends in multimedia to keep skill The students really appreciate the excellent print quality all the great pictures and their layout and how the pictures relate to the words And last but not least it's affordable They can't believe they are getting such a well done book for a fair price
